* L'appellation « Concordance Heidegger », que nous utilisons déjà dans le premier numéro du Bulletin heideggerien, est désormais le titre de l'ouvrage que nous préparons cette année pour les éditions Continuum (Londres/New York) : The Heidegger Concordance. Il se composera d'index de termes allemands, de termes grecs, de termes latins et de noms propres. Nous remercions les éditions Continuum de nous avoir autorisé à user ici de ce nom et à donner un aperçu de ce que notre livre renfermera.

 Les références sont données suivant l'édition de dernière main (Gesamtausgabe, Francfort-sur-le-Main, Klostermann, 1975–). Nous indiquons tout d'abord le numéro du tome (en caractères gras) et les pages où apparaît le nom de l'auteur ou un adjectif dérivé de son nom. Nous avons exclu de cet index les tables des matières et les titres – qui ne sont généralement pas de la main de Heidegger –, ainsi que les postfaces ou les notes des éditeurs. Les termes allemands auxquels l'index fait référence sont indiqués entre crochets. Dans l'attente de la publication du tome 89 de la Gesamtausgabe, nous utilisons ce chiffre pour renvoyer aux Zollikoner Seminare, mais indiquons ici la pagination de l'édition de Medard Boss, Zollikoner Seminare. Protokolle, Zwiegespräche, Briefe, Francfort-sur-le-Main, Vittorio Klostermann, 2006³. Les références au tome 2 de la Gesamtausgabe sont aussi indiquées entre parenthèses suivant la pagination de l'édition originale de Sein und Zeit (Tübingen, Niemeyer, 2006¹⁹).

 Nous offrons ici la seconde livraison de cet index nominum selon le découpage annoncé dans le premier numéro du Bulletin heideggerien : Antiquité I (Les Présocratiques, VIII^e – V^e s. av. J.-C.), Antiquité II (De Socrate à Plotin, IV^e – III^e s. ap. J.-C.), Moyen Âge et Temps Modernes I (D'Augustin à Hume, IV^e s. – 1750), Temps Modernes II (De Kant à Kierkegaard, 1750 – 1850), Époque contemporaine (De Nietzsche à Celan, 1850 – 1976). Nous remercions la fondation Alexander von Humboldt (www.avh.de) pour son appui financier et M. Benjamin Schröer pour son aide précieuse.
